SECTION 3: ACCOUNT HOLDER AUTHORIZATION

To Delivering Firm: Unless otherwise indicated above, please transfer all assets in my account to COR Clearing, LLC ("COR"). I understand that to the extent any assets in my account are not readily transferable, with or without penalties, such assets may not be transferred within the time frames required by New York Stock Exchange Rule 412 or similar rule of FINRA or other designated examining authority.

For Retirement Accounts: If this transfer is for a qualified retirement account, I have amended the applicable plan so that it names COR as successor custodian. Alternatively, if this transfer is for an Individual Retirement Account ("IRA"), I have adopted an IRA plan so that it names the successor custodian.

Fees: If the assets I am transferring are considered nonstandard assets at COR, I understand that I will be charged set-up and maintenance fees. I understand that fractional shares of stock are nontransferable, and I agree that any fractional shares will be liquidated by the delivering firm upon the transfer of the whole shares.

Mutual Fund Dividends and Capital Gains: I understand that my delivering broker may provide COR with mutual fund dividends and capital gains distribution instructions for each mutual fund position so that COR may implement these instructions.

Office use only.

SECTION 5: LETTER OF AUTHORIZATION – ACCOUNT REGISTRATION DIFFERENCES

This section only applies to situations where there is a common beneficial owner between both accounts. COR Clearing does not accept requests to transfer between third parties. If you are transferring an account, and the name(s) at COR Clearing do not exactly match but are still for one and the same person, please complete this section. This section should be used if your name has changed due to one or more of the following: Marriage, Divorce, Name Spelling Error, or any type of Name Change including Jr. or Sr. If there is a difference in the last name, you must supply legal documentation sufficient to establish matching identity, for example, a state-issued driver's license, passport, or government ID.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ON TRANSFERSHow long will the transfer take?

Full brokerage account transfers are sent via ACATS (Automated Customer Account Transfer Service) and take approximately 7 – 10 business days. Any residual balances that remain with the delivering brokerage firm after your transfer is completed should follow in 7 – 10 additional business days. Transfers that are not eligible to be entered on the ACATS system take at least 4 weeks to be completed upon receipt of all necessary paperwork.

Will there be any transfer fees?

Upon receiving your transfer request, your previous institution may charge a fee that they will transfer to your COR account as a debit and you are responsible for any fees transferred. COR may charge you a fee for some foreign securities.

How do I transfer my Mutual Funds?

Fill out Step 2, Section C of the form. There are some mutual fund companies with whom COR has not established an agreement to hold a particular mutual fund. You will have to contact the prior firm to have these funds liquidated. Some financial firms issue their own (proprietary) mutual funds and these mutual funds cannot be transferred to COR. You may, at your choosing, contact the prior firm and liquidate these funds. There may be charges, expenses, and tax implications associated with liquidation. You should review the fund's prospectus for more information or contact an accountant or tax professional.

How do I transfer Limited Partnerships and Alternative Investments?

COR can only transfer exchange traded LPs and COR-approved non-exchange traded LPs. Please contact your introducing broker dealer for a list of approved companies.

How do I transfer an Annuity?

Fill out Step 2, Section E of the form. We can only request liquidation for qualified accounts. Contact your existing insurer to see if they will need any additional documentation such as the original annuity contract. Also, please be aware that there may be a surrender charge involved with liquidating the annuity.

What is a Transfer in Kind?

Transfer of securities as is. Assets will be transferred to a new or existing COR brokerage account for the benefit of the client.
